

ACADEMIC LANGUAGE THERAPY

This unique instruction is designed to expertly meet the needs of students with the most common reading disorder - dyslexia. It is systematic, multisensory, comprehensive, and aimed at the key cognitive processes involved in reading and writing, delivered by professionals who have completed rigorous training and practicum requirements as set forth by the Academic Language Therapy Association (ALTA).

CALT TRAINING

CALT certification represents the highest level of training and experience in dyslexia intervention. Denver Dyslexia Partners' program provides 210 hours of in-person classroom instruction, as well as a supervised practicum implementing Take Flight: A Comprehensive Intervention for Students with Dyslexia. Janie Harvey has provided dyslexia therapy in the public school and private setting for over 16 years. She expertly oversees each teacher's practicum experience, sharing her expertise, and providing personalized guidance and feedback.

Benefits

- ALTA Gold Standard credentials at the practitioner and therapist levels
- Opportunity to work with a dynamic network of skilled professionals across the country
- State chapter community
- National, public directory of certified members
- National and regional conferences
- Professional liability insurance options for therapists and practitioners
- Exclusive access to the Journal of Academic Language Therapy
- Master's programs taking Denver Dyslexia Partners' coursework

Contact

Janie Harvey, MAT, LDT, CALT-QI
Denver Dyslexia Partners
Email: jharvey@partnertoread.com
Phone: 303-909-4636

Overview

CALT Requirements

200+ Hours of Direct Instruction
700+ Hours Supervised Practicum
10+ Demonstration Lessons
Master's Degree for CALT Certification
Bachelor's for CALP Certification

Year One Course Fee:

Tuition - $5000
Take Flight kit & texts - $1000

Advanced year

Tuition - $4200
Take Flight kit & texts - $350

2026 Course Dates

TBD by January. Course will include up to four Saturdays beginning in the spring, followed by 10 consecutive days in June, and five Saturday seminars throughout the 26-27 school year.

